Night out on the town and then a big headache the next day, but what if we get completely carried away and fill in all teh characters in the headline, i.e. 255 characters? It would be a very big headline, n'est pas? Nich war? Úgy?

This is an opportunity to get out while it is still light out. The question is how much of this text is going to be shown on the Home page. It might be a lot and it might not be very much at all.
